*Fr Gerard Woo Ling
Assistant Priest*

Dear friends,

Jesus teaches in today's Gospel that "anyone who does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." In other words those who strive to be centred in Jesus are his authentic disciples. We cannot be followers of Jesus alone. Furthermore, just because we have the seed of God within us doesn't mean we don't need further formation and accompaniment. Our parishes need to be places where our discipleship has the opportunity to be affirmed and challenged. Our parishes of Rosebery, Redfern and Waterloo are comparatively small, but they have great potential.

The Pastoral Research Office conducted by the Australian Bishops Conference engaged in a research document called Building Stronger Parishes. The document outlines a number of measures of parish vitality. As our parishes move towards greater collaboration you we might reflect on the strengths and challenges we face in these vital areas of parish life:

Vocations - Liturgy - Mission - Outreach - Community - Hospitality - Planning.

The renewing of our parishes hinges on these aspects. The energy and daring to do this will come from many ideas and sources including from you and me as well as our Archbishop, Archdiocesan personnel and other professionals.

The Archdiocesan Safeguarding Office have launched Listening to you cards. These cards will help achieve compliance with the Royal Commission Child Safe Standards: "The church entity has a child-focused complaint handling system that is understood by children, families and carers and church personnel" (6.1).

During the week Fr Gerard and I met with some of our young parishioners at the local catholic high schools. Both Fr Gerard and I are committed to supporting young people, particularly young families in their choice to send their children to catholic schools.

There is no Liturgy if the Word with Communion at 7.00am in Monday at Rosebery due to the public holiday.

Don't forget to keep in touch on the Parishes of City South Facebook page.

Catholic Parishes of City South Parish is an opportunity to strengthen and grow the Catholic community in the local area, with the view to create a united faith community.

The Parishes of City South acknowledge the Gadigal People as the traditional custodians of this land.

FOCUS ON: Redfern Parish

St Vincent de Paul Parish, Redfern was established in 1890. The first Parish Priest was appointed in 1896. A little known fact about St Vincent’s Church is that William McMahan, former Prime Minister of Australia was baptised at Redfern in February 1908. There have been 12 Parish Priests since the establishment of the Parish.

- O’REGAN R 1896 to 1936
- KENNEDY M J 1937 to 1943
- WALLACE T O 1944 to 1945
- HALPIN J 1945 to 1947
- PURCELL J J 1948 to 1958
- O’CONNOR J G 1959 to 1966
- GAFFENY J 1966-1971
- KENNEDY E 1972-2002
- CARROLL, Peter (MSC) 2003
- PRINDIVILLE, Gerald 2004-2006
- MENDES, Clesio 2007-2011
- LLABANES, Melvin 2012-2017

Each Tuesday and Friday morning the Redfern church feeds up to 20 local residents. Such outreach to those on the margins has been a hallmark of the parish for many years.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading Gen 3:9-15

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, 'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts. You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life. I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.'

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 129. R. v.7

(R.) With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!

O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading.
(R.)

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?

But with you is found forgiveness: f or this we revere you. (R.)

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord
more than watchman for daybreak. (R.)

Because with the Lord there is mercy,
and fullness of redemption,

Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity (R.)

Second Reading 2 Cor 4:13-5:1

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation Jn 12:31. 32

Alleluia, alleluia! The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 3:20-35

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him,' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.' His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'
